

Jimmy Neil Parlier

June 3, 1933 - December 14, 2017

Jimmy Neil Parlier, age 84 of Stony Point, passed away December 14, 2017 at Iredell Memorial Hospital, following a period of declining health. He was born June 3, 1933 in Iredell County to the late Garland Ben Parlier and Sue Elizabeth Campbell Parlier. Mr. Parlier graduated from Scotts High School and served in the United States Marines during the Korean War. He was a core maker and molder for the J C Steele Company. He was a former member of the American Legion, and The Woodsman of the World. He was also a member of Temple Baptist Church.

Jimmy was a unique individual growing up in the Scotts community giving and helping anyone in need with his talents in construction, farming and general handyman work. He never met a stranger and was always willing to help in any way he could. Over the years he made many special friends that he cherished deeply.

In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by two brothers, Donnie G Parlier and Jerry B Parlier; and a sister, Nancy P Hedrick.

He is survived by his wife of sixty two years and three months, Marion Lucille Marlowe Parlier of the home; a daughter, Vickie P Compton and husband Tony; a sister, Jane Carter and husband Robert all of Statesville; two grandchildren, Carline Goodson and husband Chad of Sherrills Ford and Lindsey Cheek and husband Cameron of Statesville; one great grandchild, Sadie Elise Goodson and great grandchild, Baby Cheek coming in June 2018; also numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3:00pm Saturday December 16, 2017 at Temple Baptist Church. Rev. Jason Payne and Rev. Todd Payne will officiate. Burial will follow in the church cemetery. Military rites will be conducted. The family will receive friends from 1:30-3:00pm prior to the service at the church.
