“ Allen and I were neighbors growing up. I hadn't seen him since leaving for navy boot camp following graduation. We played numerous games of ball and worked together at a grocery store for a while. We played numerous games of croquet. He had the oldest and nicest croquet set I've ever seen. He always won by the way. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Uncle Allen I will miss all of our little talks when we saw each other. My favorite childhood memories were when yall came to town to visit. It's so hard to believe you are gone. Thanks for loving my family and always telling us so. You always gave the best hugs and made us feel special. Love you always.

“ Uncle Allen, you will be missed. I can't believe you are gone. I will miss your silliness and helpfulness. But we are selfish here on Earth. I am so glad you have gained victory over that stupid cancer and that now you are living in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ. I am headed that way myself. It will be a great reunion one day. Maybe we can get Mamaw Dorothy to fry up some country ham for us that day. I love you Uncle Allen!
