Barbara Ann “Beadie” Lackey, 73, of Hiddenite, N.C. went to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on December 17, 2024. She was born March 25, 1951 in Amonate, Virginia to the late Dewey Spears and Effie Parks Puckett. In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her youngest daughter, Lena Lackey and numerous brothers and sisters.

Barbara leaves to cherish her memory her husband of 57 years, Henry Lackey; Daughters: Judy Keffer and Heather Torrence (David); Grandchildren: Austin Keever, Emily Murray (Nickolas), Sevana Keffer, Stephanie Torrence (Skylar), Kirsten Palfrey (Jake), Grayson and Kaymeron Torrence, and Alexis Lackey; Great-Grandchildren: Brooklynn, Eliza, and Ezekiel Murray, Alistair, Calder, Evander, Fletcher, and Ollen, Lena Martinez, and Oakley Palfrey; Siblings; Judy Smith and Neal Spears.

Barbara was the matriarch of her family. She didn’t know a stranger and when it came to kids, her house was always full. She was a loving Mom and Mamaw to many. She was also a business owner for 10 years, operating a cleaning service. In 1999, both her and her husband, Henry, retired and re-located back to Hiddenite, NC, where they have enjoyed the past 25 years.

Above all, her greatest joy came from spending time with her family and making memories with those close to her heart. She dearly loved her family and friends. Barbara was a wonderful Wife, Mother, Mamaw, Great-Mamaw, Aunt, and Sister and will be leaving a legacy of love and dedication that will continue on in perpetuity.

A private gathering will be held in her memory.

Chapman Funeral Home is serving the Lackey family.

“ Mamaw will always have a place in our hearts and minds. Our family will celebrate her with stories and memories, so that she may continue to live on through us.

There's no telling what kind of trouble Mamaw has begun to stir up, with a seemingly endless selection of cowboys at her disposal. She will assuredly enjoy her time, until the day Papaw can re-join her company.
