

Betty Lou Honbarrier Walser

February 17, 1942 - December 31, 2016

Betty Lou Honbarrier Walser, age 74, of Taylorsville, passed away, Saturday December 31, 2016 at Carolinas Medical Center-Union. She was born February 17, 1942 in Rowan County to the late Moses Clark Honbarrier and Ruby Stokes Honbarrier. Betty graduated high school from East Rowan High School in Granite Quarry, N.C. She continued her education in Nursing but her chosen profession was to be a homemaker. She was also a member of The First Baptist Church in Taylorsville.

Betty loved to cook from scratch, hearty yet healthy meals, for her family. She also loved socializing with others and caring for her beloved cats. Betty would sew clothing for her family, enjoyed gardening, and enjoyed studying health and nutritional information. Betty had a wonderful personality, loved talking on the phone, and had a wonderful voice and a smile that could light up a room. Betty is survived by her husband of 53 years, John Ivan Walser, of Taylorsville; two sons, Montgomery Walser and his wife Alisa of Monroe and Harrison Walser and his wife Corinne of Indian Trail; and two grandchildren Harrison and Benjamin Walser of Indian Trail; three sisters, Jean Williams and her husband Lonnie of Linwood, Patty Morris and her husband Larry of Salisbury, and Diane Andrade of Charlotte.

Funeral services will be conducted 2:00pm Thursday January 5, 2017 at the Chapman Funeral Home Chapel. Rev. Lisa Wolfe will officiate. Burial will follow in the Stony Point Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 1:00-

2:00pm at Chapman Funeral Home prior to the service.

Memorials in Betty's honor may be made to the Charlotte/Pineville Spay Neuter Clinic, 2017 N. Davidson Street, Suite A, Charlotte, N.C. 28205, or another local low-cost spay neuter clinic. Cancer Research Institute, 55 Broadway Suite 1802, New York, N.Y. 10006.
