

Billy (Pop) Garland Cook

May 11, 1941 - April 22, 2009

Billy Garland "Pop" Cook, 67, of 125 Oakleaf Court, Mocksville, passed away Wednesday, April 22, 2009, at Iredell Memorial Hospital. He was born on May 11, 1941, in Iredell County, to the late LeRoy Cook and Louise Robbins Cook. Billy was retired from the City of Statesville, where he was employed for 30 years as a firefighter. He was a member of Eastside Baptist Church in Statesville. Not only was he an active participant in the Iredell/Statesville Senior Games, he was also an ambassador, promoting the games within the community. He enjoyed traveling with his wife and friends, and was known to spend many days at the horseshoe pits.

In addition to his parents, Billy was preceded in death by a granddaughter, Robyn Carpenter.

He is survived by his wife, Sue Lipe Cook, of Mocksville; three daughters, Teresa Cook Pitts, of Mocksville, Karen Cook, of the home, and Candace Cook Blevins, of Louisburg; five grandchildren, Chris Pitts, Spencer, Hannah, Cole, and Lydia Blevins; one great-grandchild, Kathalene Pitts; two brothers, Frank and Johnny Cook; and three sisters, Carolyn Snow, Brenda Larkum, and Kathy Brown.

A grave side service celebrating Billy's life will be held at 2 p.m. on Friday, April 24, at Iredell Memorial Park in Statesville. The Rev. John Parks will officiate the service. There will be no formal visitation, but the family will be gathered at the family residence in Mocksville.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Eastside Baptist Church Mission

Fund, 310 Eastside Drive, Statesville, NC 28625.

Tribute Wall

“ Billy (Pop) Garland Cook

October 05, 2023 at 11:02 AM