

Carolyn Jean Cook Stikeleather

September 17, 1941 - May 25, 2018

Carolyn Jean Cook Stikeleather, age 76 of Wilmington, passed away May 25, 2018 at Lower Cape Fear Hospice in Wilmington. Carolyn was born September 17, 1941, in Burke County to the late Sylvester Lynn and Lillian Lucille Sloop Cook.

Before her disability, she was employed at Alexvale Furniture in the swatch dept for 15 years. She attended Sulphur Spring Baptist Church. She had a lovely singing voice and enjoyed singing gospel music with her family, "The Cook Family" at special gatherings and at different churches.

Carolyn is survived by four daughters; Sherry Justice and husband James of Leland, Donna Lewis and husband Eric, Sandra Johnson, both of Taylorsville and Chrystal Stikeleather of, West Virginia two brothers; Robert Cook of Taylorsville, Thomas Cook and wife Patricia, of Hiddenite, one sister; Joyce C Sweet and husband Johnny of Hiddenite, eleven grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

A service of remembrance will be conducted on, Saturday, June 2, 2018, at 3:00 pm, at Sulphur Springs Baptist Church, 116 Patterson Road, Hiddenite, NC.

Rev. Steve Parks and Rev. Mitch King will officiate. The family will receive friends from 2-3 pm prior to the service in the sanctuary of the church.

Tribute Wall

“ Carolyn Jean Cook Stikeleather

October 05, 2023 at 11:02 AM