“ Our hearts are saddened by the loss of Cleda. So many memories of visiting Uncle Bain & Aunt Vivian each summer. We always had sleepovers at Cleda's home, so much fun and wonderful memories to cherish. Keeping each of you in our thoughts and prayers. May God bless each one of you, providing comfort, strength, and peace now and in the days ahead. Love to all.

“ To the family of Clede, I have fond memories of spending summers at Aunt Vivian's house, my sister Debbie and I loved going to Clede's house and play with Cindy and Jeff. Clede taught me to ride a bike. She was a wonderful lady and I have never forgotten her kindness. Over 50 years have passed by, but my time with Clede has never diminished. You all are in my thought and prayers
