“ I first met Frank about 5 years ago and we immediately had a bond. We went through many storms together. No matter what was going on or where we were at in our lives he always referred to me as his brother. Frank was a man’s man but never had a problem telling all that he loved them. If he had a dollar in his pocket and someone needed it he, without hesitation, gave it to them. He read the Bible often and he always had it close by. He spoke often about being with his Father one day. Frank was blessed and he blessed many who crossed paths with him. Rest in peace my friend 🙏
