“ I remember when he walked out on his wife and three daughters when I was 8 years old. It would be nice if this obituary were edited to reflect accurate information and to show he left more than his late wife as surviving him. He had three daughters and a son; that we know of, he only thought of himself fondly. Fondness for others only was exhibited if it benefitted him. He left his three daughters and died owing 97,000.00 in child support. He was a real upstanding guy. I'm pretty sure it's nice and warm where he is now.
