“ Hoyte Lee always brought a smile to my face each year at Christmas time when he would turn into the driveway and come up on the porch all decked out as Santa Claus, something that he really enjoyed as long as he was able to do it. He was most welcomed at the nursing homes and was a tremendous blessing to many many people. He always had a gift bag, containing an apple a pair of socks ,an orange and a great big smile for everyone. He will truly be missed. R I P my friend.
