“ Robin, the relationship you and Justin shared was beautiful to behold. No matter the circumstances, you radiated joy at being in one another's company. Justin's pride in, and love for, his children were always apparent. His relationship with his dad demonstrated pure love. May your precious memories comfort you in the days to come as you mourn. May you feel the love of our family and the comfort of our God.

“ So proud of you Justin you were a good son, husband, father and grandfather. God lent you to us for a season. You are going to be surely missed everyday by everyone that loves and knew you. All the suffering is over and the peace and love that surpasses all understanding envelopes you. Love always Dad.
