“ One day I came home from school and met Linda. And from that moment on I just knew Linda was the one I could always count on to be here for me and my family she was always there to help us when we needed it Linda would give you the clothes off her back! We are gonna miss her so so much! It feels like a nightmare but until we see each other again! We used to call her Uncle Linda to be funny so we love you and will meet again one day soon we love you uncle Linda!
