“ Robin Necci and Family, We are deeply sorry for the loss of your mother. Our heart goes out to you and the family during this incredibly difficult time. Please know that we are here for you, whether you need a shoulder to cry on, someone to listen, or simply some quiet company. Your mother’s memory will always live on in the love and kindness she shared with everyone who knew her. May you and your family find comfort in the cherished memories you hold close to your heart. In Mrs. Johnson’s honor, your 2021 Top Ten sisters planted a tree in her honor. May she rest in peace. Trust God for your strength and peace. We love you! 2021 Top Ten Sisters

“ I did not know Louise, but I know her daughter Amy! I've learned how Louise passed her love of music down to Amy, and I can tell by looking at Louise's face that she was a warm, loving, human being, thus influencing her daughter to be the same. My deepest condolences to the family of Louise Johnson. I am so sorry for your loss. Thinking of all of you with love. JoAnna Umlauf
