“ MABEL FOX WAUGH FAMILY

A Lady who has been a servant for the Lord. This lady had a gift which was called a grateful heart; given as a noteworthy servant of the Lord. She had shared the Lord's love, friendships and many concerns in her walk of life. Always, with kind words for family, fellowmen and women. Her servant's hands were always reaching out in dedication and prayers; in her church family. With a trusting heart helping each child, regardless of age or gender; she was giving lessons of caring. Being true in her witness and commitments especially to her immediate family. She was a Lady that continued in sharing to all of her fellowmen and women. Whether it was yesterday, she loved you still, always has loved you and did so till she received her call to come home. May the Lord bless this dear Lady.

"She did share together the blessings of God."- Philippians 1:7
