

Mildred Sebastian Brown

September 20, 1936 - November 19, 2020

Mildred Sebastian Brown, 84, of Hiddenite, passed away November 19, 2020 at Valley Nursing Center in Taylorsville. Mildred was born September 20, 1936, in Wilkes County, the daughter of the late Charles Oren (Bee) Sebastian and Grace Rebecca Miller Sebastian. Mildred attended Millers Creek School in Wilkes County where she loved playing basketball and was one of the highest scorers. She was always eager and excited to share her memories of those days. Mildred worked primarily in furniture related industry, did home childcare, then was a bus driver at East Jr. High School before retirement. Prior to declining health she enjoyed cooking, gardening, canning, backyard bird watching, and spending time with family and friends. She was a member of Hiddenite Baptist Church and enjoyed attending services there when her health allowed.

Including her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of 38 years, Doris L. Brown, two children, six siblings, and a nephew.

Those left to honor and cherish her memory include a daughter, Laura Brown Farmer and husband Brian of Stony Point, two sons, Lynn Brown of Taylorsville, Jeff Dancy of North Wilkesboro, six grandchildren, two great grandchildren, one brother, Fred Sebastian and wife Grace of Wilkesboro, along with numerous nieces, nephews, and close friends.

No formal services will be conducted at this time. Chapman Funeral Home of Stony Point will handle final arrangements. Donations in memory of Mildred can be sent to Hospice And Home Care of Alexander Co. Inc., 50 Lucy

Echerd Lane, Taylorsville NC, 28681 or Hiddenite Baptist Church, 250
Hiddenite Church Road, Hiddenite NC, 28636.

The Brown family would like to express their sincere gratitude to the staff members at Valley Nursing Center and Hospice And Home Care of Alexander County for the care provided and kindness shown during Mildred's time there. Also a special thanks to very close family friend, Nancy Jenkins Gunter for her support and kindness shown prior to and during this time.
