“ I just found out about "Mrs. Pauline"'s passing. She was such a sweet lady and will be truly missed. Although she was blind, she had the best "vision" I have every known. She never failed to give Mom a call if she wasn't in Sunday school to check on her, making sure she was ok. Now they are back together in their eternal worship service! To the family, may your pain be lessened with the knowledge that she has run the race and finished well. ❤️🕊

“ The family of Pauline Lambert Stewart,

We remember you Pauline Lambert Stewart.

At the rising sun and at its going down we remember you.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter we remember you.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring we remember you.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer we remember you.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of the autumn we remember you.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember you.

As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us.

We remember you.

As we remember you Pauline Lambert Stewart.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember you.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember you.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make, we remember you.

When we have joy, we crave to share, we remember you.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs, we remember you.

For as long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember. Truly today; "We have shared together the blessings of God."-- Philippians 1:7. As a part of the Scotts community, Scotts High School Alumni, Class of 1951, and a special Lady in the Stewart family, May God Bless All.

What a beautifully written condolence. You truly have shared the blessings of God with her. And what wonderful blessings will be ahead for all of us. Revelations 21:4 says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain. The former things have passed away ". May the God of all comfort give strength and his love to all the loved ones of Pauline.
