“ There is so many memories of Rob and our gang from Erin. Some fun times we sure did have. Sledding on Suicide Hill, skating on the fire pond, and of course all the parties at the "Castle". Hanging out on the bridge, the big Halloween fire and many more. Thanks, Rob for being part of my teen years. I will never forget them. Rest in peace my friend.

I am Rob's cousin and I will write here what I told his sister Carol a couple of days ago . I remember when we were kids and I was probably around 11 or 12 years old. Rob was a teenager then and every time I saw him I always thought he was the coolest person I had ever seen or listened to just like Uncle Jim. Once we were adults I didn't see Rob much as I moved around a lot but whenever I was at a family event and Rob walked into a room everyone noticed. I guess I think he's still one of the coolest people I have ever known. Rest peacefully Rob. Love you.
