

Robert Mack Oliver

July 26, 1931 - March 27, 2021

Robert "Mack" Oliver, 89, of Stony Point, went home to be with our Lord Saturday March 27th at his home after an extended illness. He was born July 26th, 1931 in Alexander County. Mack created a loving home environment deeply rooted in faith. He came to know Christ at a young age, and his constant relationship with the Lord shaped his character in countless wonderful ways. He was amazingly unselfish and generous, patient and loving, humble and thoughtful, slow to anger and quick with humor, disciplined and hard-working. He exemplified servant leadership in the church, at home, and in community service with the Gideons, VFW, and Ruritan Club. Mack served as an elder and Sunday School teacher at Stony Point ARP Church, and in later years, joined Berea Baptist Church where he served as deacon. Mack always put his faith and family first. No matter what else was going on, he closed every day by reading a Bible chapter and devotional to his wife and children, and kneeling in prayer for his family and those in sickness or need. Mack served in the Navy during the Korean War and worked for Kewaunee Scientific for nearly four decades.

Mack was preceded in death by his loving parents, Vance and Grace Oliver, his brother Neil Oliver and sister Grace Stout, and grandson Oliver Thomas. He is survived by his beloved wife of 65 years, Libby Oliver; daughters Elaine Oliver Thomas, Paula Radford, and Ina Lee Harkness; son Mark Oliver; brothers Don and Rex Oliver; grandchildren Kellen Harkness, Leah Callaway,

Christin Thomas, Mackenzie Woody, Amanda Radford, Abbey and Audrey Oliver; and great-grandchildren Lucy and Vera Harkness; Ambrose, Beatrix, and Fen Callaway; Milah Thomas; Zak Woody; and Keir Radford.

“ Mack was a very special man in the VFW you could always count on him to help. My mother would talk about the Oliver's going to school at Stony Point. His sister Grace married my mother's oldest brother Dale who was killed in WWII. So I have always heard about the Oliver's.
