“ Mudd was someone special to many but to me he was allot more and then some..... We became EVERYTHING we could be with each other from the day we met and no matter how many years between us we NEVER missed a beat and we always knew how to ruin the day for the other or make the best that it could possibly be..... We fought like no others and we loved like no others but I'm the end we were fighting for one another.... I'll ALWAYS love you and missing you is an understatement but your kindness and love here on earth was needed elsewhere.... Mudd your absence has completely changed my life and you will never be forgotten.... Love BabyGirl Larissa Townsend

“ He was a good friend to anybody that was around

“ Mudd was a good man, myself along with others spent a lot of time with Dale. He was a brother to us all. We would spend every day around each other enjoying good times. We would go to Rodeos, races, bon fires, fourwheeling, cruising and just hanging out. He would never hesitate to help out anyone in need and never asked for anything back.
