“ I first met Joey at Mt Pisgah when I started going to church with my boyfriend, Garry Lunsford, who I later married. He was a kid in my church, along with his parents and siblings. I just remember a dark haired kid with a smile on his face. As an adult, he moved away and on with his life and we never met again until I saw him at his Dad's funeral. I know my husband has fond memories of Joey too. He is family. May God bless his family today and give comfort during their loss 🙏

“ So sorry to hear of Joey's passing. We had a lot of good times growing up together! Joey and I were the same age and as cousins we played together a lot. Sometimes Joe would come up to my store or I'd run into him at the grocery store, I know it's hard for all of you as you've shared your lives together and you will miss him.
